BIO

Ana Lía lights up a room. A Dominican-Canadian, her charming, vibrant performances deliver an unmistakable experience for every audience. The singular blend of Rhythmic Dominican and Latin songs, jazz, pop, flamenco, and even hip-hop, shape the way she crafts music today. Her bright, rich voice, makes her music enjoyable beyond language.

In June 2023, she released her debut album, Cíclica. As an artist, she's garnered over 209K streams, more than 117K listeners in 90 countries on Spotify. She's opened for Alex Cuba in concert in 2022, has played at the NXNE 2022 and recently showcased at the Canadian B2BBQ pre-WOMEX 2023 in A Coruña, Spain, Phoque OFF 2024, Syli d'Or 2024 and will showcase at BIME Bogotá 2024. This up and coming firecracker is here to stay and infect us with her luminous energy.

WHAT'S BEING SAID ABOUT ANA LÍA

Credit: Cassandra Popescu

“A powerful voice and engaging performer, Ana Lía won over the Lula audience within moments, and kept them captivated throughout the concert.”

TRACY JENKINS, CO-ARTISTIC & EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
AT LULAWORLD RECORDS AND ARTIST MANAGEMENT

"I love your contemporary take on Flamenco, the way you incorporate tradition with fresh modern elements and your voice is lovely! (...) You are a talented young woman and I really think your songwriting is very fresh and relevant."

LAURA FERNÁNDEZ - CAFÉ LATINO ON JAZZ FM

“Ana Lía’s debut album ‘Cíclica’ has been on repeat this last month; I love the energy, the humour, the sensitivity, and where she is coming from as an artist and a human."

FREDDY MONASTERIO - DEVELOPMENT AND
GRANTS MANAGER AT LYRICFIND IN AN INTERVIEW WITH BYTA

“The Dominican-Canadian musician just released her debut album on which she sings about missing her motherland, getting rid of toxic people in her life, and falling in love.

The story behind the song ‘Que Ironía’ is one that many of us who’ve come from other countries will relate to.”

ERROL NAZARETH - BIG CITY, SMALL WORLD ON CBC MUSIC
